That's the plan. We've already done one and will do another when the rain subsides.

Hi there,

I just wanted to make sure it was on your radar to try and do a good power washing of Broadway a couple of times before Night on Broadway, to help decrease odors.

We do this every year and talked about it a while back, so I'm sure it hasn't slipped through the cracks, but just checking.

Thanks so much,

Jessica
